BEHAVIOR POLICY:

Cyber bullying involves the use of information and communication technologies to support deliberate, repeated and hostile behavior by an individual or group that is intended to harm others. Cyberbullying of any kind is strictly prohibited and is grounds for immediate dismissal from the virtual summer camp program.

INTERNET SAFETY POLICY:

Our top priority of our HUM Virtual Tree House Summer Camp participants is safety. This camp uses Zoom Video conferencing and videos to teach lessons that have been safeguarded through the university guidelines and policies. However, we strongly suggest and encourage families to talk to their camper(s) about safe internet practices and guidelines before the start of this program.

PHOTOS:

We want and encourage you to take photos of your experiences as you complete our Virtual Tree House Summer Camp! Any photos that are submitted to us will be used for marketing purposes.

AGREEMENT:

I, _____, give permission for my camper(s) to participate in the 2022 Virtual Hampton University Tree House Summer Camp. I understand that this virtual camp is self-guided with daily video conferencing and some adult assistance may be needed to complete some activities. Internet safety precautions have been taken; however, guidance should be given by a supervising adult before program is started. All pictures taken and/or submitted will be used for marketing purposes. Online classroom activities will be monitored by Hampton University Museum staff. I will not hold Hampton University or the Hampton University Museum responsible for any accidental injuries incurred during the completion of this online program.

I have read and accept all of the terms of this agreement.
