Dear Hampton University Community,

The Title IX Office has been made aware of unauthorized email communications sent to students in the Psychology Department from a former faculty member. These communications contained inappropriate content related to continuing education events.

Effective immediately, the email address associated with these communications has been blocked from the university system. However, we recognize that some students may have received these messages at their personal email addresses as well.

We ask all faculty, staff, and students to take the following actions:

- 1. Do not respond to or engage with any similar communications you may receive
- 2. Report any additional communications from this sender to:
 - Title IX Office: titleix@hamptonu.edu or (757)727-5426
 - IT Department: ithelpdesk@hamptonu.edu or (757) 727-5959
- 3. Delete these messages and block the sender from your personal email, if applicable.

If you have received these communications and feel uncomfortable or have concerns, please contact the Title IX Office. Confidential support resources are also available through the Student Counseling Center and the Employee Assistance Program.

We take the privacy and safety of our community seriously and are investigating how contact information may have been accessed. Further guidance will be provided as appropriate.

Thank you for your immediate attention to this matter.

Sincerely,
Ms. Kori Harris
