MESSAGE FROM THE PRESIDENT

A Foundation of Excellence: Building Our Future Together

Dear Hampton Family & Friends,

Reflecting on the 2024-2025 academic year, I am deeply moved by the incredible work and shared vision of the Hampton University family. Our theme for this year's Annual Impact & Philanthropy Report, "A Foundation of Excellence," is a tribute to the collective spirit that has defined us, allowing us to build a strong base for the future. From our students and faculty to our dedicated alumni and staff, every member of this community has contributed to a year of remarkable progress.

This past year demonstrated the profound impact of our united efforts. Hampton University proudly generated nearly $43 million in revenue, a testament to the powerful loyalty and trust our community places in our mission. This financial strength is a direct result of the collective commitment to our strategic plan, which guides our investments in advanced technology, innovative research, and a premier student experience.

I want to take this moment to salute the Board of Trustees, whose stewardship this year has been nothing short of transformative. By leveraging your gifts and influence to contribute over $1.375 million—surpassing last year's $775,000—you have redefined the standard for support. Let it be known that our elevation to R2 status is a direct result of your vision and dedication.

This momentum sets the stage for our upcoming Capital Campaign, a historic endeavor that will secure our future and elevate Hampton to new heights. We will build upon this foundation to create a campus that inspires, programs that innovate, and a legacy that endures. The campaign is our opportunity to translate our shared accomplishments into transformative change.

I extend my heartfelt thanks for your invaluable contributions this past year. Your generosity and dedication are the bedrock of our progress. As we look ahead, let us continue to work together with hope and determination. I have no doubt that with your continued partnership, we will realize our most ambitious goals and ensure that Hampton's legacy of excellence shines brighter than ever before.

In Excellence and Service,

Lt. Gen. Darrell K. Williams '83 (USA, Retired)
President

MESSAGE FROM THE CHAIRMAN OF THE BOARD OF TRUSTEES

A Foundation of Excellence: From Vision to Momentum

Dear Hampton Family,

As my tenure as Chairman of the Board of Trustees concludes, I reflect on our journey together with a profound sense of gratitude. The work of this past year, which this report celebrates, is a powerful testament to the strong foundation we have built together. It is an honor to have served in a place that has always inspired greatness, instilling the principles of hard work, integrity, and service that have guided me. I am deeply proud of the groundwork we've laid, which includes the strategic selection of our dynamic leader, President Darrell K. Williams.

Our collective efforts have been truly remarkable, setting a new standard for excellence and demonstrating our readiness to launch a successful capital campaign. The monumental achievements of the last fiscal year, including raising $12M in philanthropic support, are a testament to our shared commitment to elevating Hampton Excellence. Together, we have achieved phenomenal results, with alumni giving reaching $6.5M alone, while simultaneously securing an extraordinary $33M in research and government grants. We have also strengthened partnerships with the National Hampton Alumni Association, Inc. (NHAA) and other key stakeholders, igniting an alumni pride and engagement that is stronger than ever. This collective effort has been essential in preparing for what will be a historic capital campaign.

In a rapidly changing landscape of higher education, the need to support Hampton—and all HBCUs—is more urgent than ever. I pass the torch of leadership to our incoming Chairman, Michael Armstrong, with every confidence. As an alumnus and a committed leader, I know he will guide the Board to even greater heights of leadership and service.

Let this report serve as an inspiration, compelling each of us to double our efforts and join hands to secure Hampton's legacy for generations to come.

Sincerely,

Wesley Coleman '71
Chairman
Hampton University Board of Trustees

MESSAGE FROM THE CHIEF ADVANCEMENT OFFICER

A Foundation of Excellence: Envisioning Hampton's Global Impact

Hello Hampton Family,

As Hampton University's first Chief Advancement Officer, I see a future of unparalleled impact, a vision we are rapidly bringing to fruition. During this brief yet intense period, we have made extraordinary progress, laying the foundation that will sustain our future growth, including the impending launch of a comprehensive capital campaign that will secure our long-term future. This endeavor is driven by our commitment to fostering a dynamic culture of philanthropy across our entire university ecosystem.

This culture empowers every member of the Hampton family—students, faculty, staff, alumni, and friends—to contribute to a shared destiny. Your collective passion and generosity are the essential fuel for the success of our fundraising effort and the ultimate realization of our “Elevating Hampton Excellence” Strategic Plan.

This Fundraising Report is a powerful declaration of our readiness. It illuminates the transformative potential of your support, showcasing our preparedness to embark on this campaign that will secure Hampton's global leadership for generations.

Sincerely,

A Legacy of Leadership and Giving:

The Hrabowskis' Enduring Impact on Hampton

Reunion Weekend at Hampton University is always a time of celebration, and in May 2025, it was marked by a moment of monumental generosity. Dr. Freeman A. Hrabowski III '70 and Mrs. Jacqueline C. Hrabowski '70, a couple whose lives and careers have long been synonymous with educational leadership, returned to campus to make a historic $1 million donation. This transformational gift, announced during the festivities, is designated to support student scholarships, furthering a legacy of giving that has already touched countless lives at the university.

Their philosophy of giving is simple yet profound: “To whom much is given, much is required.” It is a principle they have lived by since their days as students on this campus. Their recent contribution builds upon a remarkable history of philanthropy, including a $500,000 gift in 2020 on the 7th Annual Day of Giving, which was made in honor of their 50th class reunion and supported The Jacqueline and Freeman Hrabowski Endowed Scholarship fund.

For the Hrabowskis, the act of giving is a deeply personal one. Dr. Hrabowski reflects on the power of the Hampton experience, noting that it not only prepared them academically for graduate work at the University of Illinois but also instilled in them a crucial “sense of self.” Mrs. Hrabowski adds that her time at Hampton reinforced a personal motto: “Let your work speak for you.” This belief in integrity and commitment has guided their careers and their philanthropic efforts.

Their dedication to Hampton goes beyond financial contributions. Their support was recognized in 2018 with the naming of The Freeman and Jacqueline Hrabowski Student Success Center. This tribute acknowledges their unwavering belief that the Hampton experience prepares students to become leaders, and their giving is a direct investment in that future.

The Hrabowskis are national education leaders. Dr. Hrabowski, who served as president of the University of Maryland, Baltimore County (UMBC) from 1992 to 2022, has been a consultant on science and math education to national agencies. Mrs. Hrabowski, formerly Vice President of Corporate Community Involvement at T. Rowe Price, is a dedicated community volunteer. They both understand the critical need for alumni support to ensure that institutions like Hampton can continue their mission.

When asked about what inspires them, Mrs. Hrabowski points to lessons from her father about helping people, regardless of financial means. Dr. Hrabowski shares a similar sentiment, highlighting the importance of giving both time and money. He passionately argues that alumni have a responsibility to support their alma mater, and that a single Hamptonian can inspire others to give, creating a ripple effect of opportunity. The Hrabowskis' actions serve as a powerful testament to this belief, ensuring that Hampton's legacy of excellence and opportunity continues for generations to come.

LEGACY OF GIVING: Virginia Speaker Don Scott

Virginia Speaker of the House Don Scott, a distinguished lawyer and veteran, recently made a significant impact on Hampton University, a place deeply connected to his family. During the May 2025 commencement ceremony, Speaker Scott announced the creation of the Dr. Mellanda Colson Scott Endowed Scholarship, a $100,000 gift honoring his wife, a Hampton alumna. This scholarship is designed to support chemistry students who plan to pursue dentistry, bridging two important fields of study at the university.

We sat down with Speaker Scott to discuss his inspiration, his legislative priorities, and the power of giving back.

Q: This is such a meaningful gesture. What was the inspiration behind establishing this scholarship in your wife's name?

A: It was a way to honor everything Mellanda represents. She's a proud Hampton alumna, Class of 1993, and her success as a dentist and mentor is a direct reflection of the strong foundation she received here. She has always championed the value of education, especially for students from underserved communities. This scholarship is a proud means for us to give back to the university that gave her so much and to help a new generation of leaders follow in her footsteps.

Q: You are the first Black Speaker of the Virginia House of Delegates. How does your personal journey influence your public and philanthropic work?

A: My life has been a series of unconventional experiences, from being raised by a single mother in Houston to serving in the Navy and eventually becoming an attorney. I've been through challenges, but I'm a firm believer that "it's not where you start in life; it's where you end up that counts." My journey has shown me the power of second chances and the importance of creating pathways to success for others. It's what drives my legislative priorities, which include criminal justice reform, and it's what inspires our family to give back. I want to build a stronger Virginia where everyone has the opportunity to thrive, regardless of their background.

Q: The scholarship is for chemistry students aspiring to be dentists. Why that specific focus?

A: It's a direct connection to my wife's career path. Mellanda graduated from Hampton with a chemistry degree before getting her dental surgery doctorate from Howard University. Hampton's science programs provide a rigorous foundation for medical and dental professions, and we want to ensure that students with that dream have the financial support to achieve it. It's about building a pipeline of talented, diverse healthcare leaders.

Q: What message do you hope this act of giving sends to other alumni and community members?

A: I want people to see that giving isn't just about money; it's about investing in people. President Williams said it well—it's an example of Hampton pride and a commitment to the future. Our institutions, especially Historically Black Colleges and Universities (HBCUs), need our support to continue their vital mission. I hope our donation inspires other Hamptonians to give what they can, whether it's their time, their skills, or their resources, to ensure that the "Home by the Sea" continues to shape lives and secure our shared legacy.

From Prison to Power: A Keynote That Stirred the Soul

The keynote address from The Honorable Don L. Scott, Speaker of the Virginia House of Delegates, was nothing short of transformational. The first Black Speaker in the House's 400-year history, Scott shared a deeply personal journey—from incarceration to influence—with raw honesty and resounding hope.

“While at LSU Law, I made a mistake. In 1994, I was sentenced to 10 years. I thought my life was over,” he said. But redemption was just beginning. In the years since, Scott rebuilt his life, launching a law practice that has secured more than $100 million in settlements and achieving a full presidential pardon from Joe Biden in January 2024.

His powerful refrain: “You can stand firm because you stand on the shoulders of those who came before you. Now, others will stand on yours.”

With his family beaming from the crowd, Scott's message rang clear, wherever you begin, greatness is within reach.

Planting Seeds of Opportunity

To thunderous applause, Speaker Scott pledged a $100,000 gift to establish the Dr. Mellanda Colson Scott Endowed Scholarship. “This is a seed,” he said, “for students like me—those who are brilliant but one emergency away from leaving school.”

His gift, in honor of his wife, a graduate of the class of 1993, will support students facing financial adversity, reinforcing Hampton's commitment to access, equity, and excellence amid a national climate of shrinking educational resources.

“HBCUs aren't going anywhere,” Scott declared. “We are here. We are strong. And we are standing tall.”

ESTEEMED DONORS: Pacesetter Profiles

Myra Richardson Williams '83 LEADING WITH GRACE AND JOY

Behind every great leader is a steadfast partner. For President Darrell K. Williams, that partner is First Lady Myra Richardson Williams '83. A proud alumna of the legendary "Radiance" class, she is the embodiment of grace whose steady presence on campus and genuine engagement with students, faculty, staff, and alumni elevate the Hampton experience. Her powerful example of service and philanthropy is a vital force as we position Hampton for the future.

Tiyale Hayes '98 SERVING WITH IMPACT

Hampton alumnus Tiyale Hayes '98, an Executive Vice President at BET Networks, is a dynamic leader in data analytics. His commitment extends to his alma mater as an alumnus-giving co-chair for the NHAA Legacy Blue Gala. By leading philanthropic efforts and raising awareness, he exemplifies how alumni directly strengthen the university's mission and build the financial infrastructure necessary for the next era of innovation and impact.

Leon Burns III '11 PAYING IT FORWARD IN TECH

Leon Burns III '11, President of Open Technology Group, is paying it forward by opening doors for future tech leaders. Last year, his company committed an additional $25,000 toward their $100,000 pledge for the "DEIB in Black Analytics" scholarship. This initiative provides $5,000 annually to five students, aiming to increase African American representation in data analytics and address inequities in AI development. His story proves that visionary philanthropy can spark a transformative movement.

Faculty Innovator: Dr. Demetris L. Geddis '98 INNOVATING FOR THE FUTURE

Dr. Demetris L. Geddis '98, Assistant Dean of SEAA, is a testament to the leaders Hampton produces. With extensive research experience from Motorola and NASA, he secured over $607,000 in grants for the Engineering department from the Department of Education and the NSF. As the Principal Investigator on a multi-disciplinary grant, Dr. Geddis's vision is building a crucial pipeline of future STEM leaders. His efforts are actively shaping the future of our nation's workforce.

PART II

Rooted in Purpose, Partnership and Possibility

This year's fundraising achievements reflect more than dollars raised, they represent renewed confidence in Hampton's mission and a deepened culture of philanthropy across our community. Alumni, trustees, and corporate partners united in shared commitment, expanding opportunity for students and reinforcing the academic and institutional pillars that sustain our "Home by the Sea."

In the pages that follow, you'll find stories of how your investment is making a difference across every corner of our campus, supporting groundbreaking research, expanding scholarships, advancing faculty innovation, and deepening community engagement. These efforts show how Hampton's foundation of excellence continues to grow stronger, shaping lives and creating lasting impact on society, the community, and the world.

A Culture of Giving

Philanthropy is the bedrock of Hampton University's success, a belief that giving transforms lives. This past year, we cultivated a robust culture of philanthropy that resulted in unprecedented generosity at every level, fueling our mission and securing our future. This year's Fundraising Report is our formal thank you, recognizing every individual, corporation, and foundation that has invested in our vision. It is a testament to the collective power of giving, underscoring the profound impact your contributions have on the lives of our students and the entire Hampton community.

CORPORATE & FOUNDATION PARTNERS: A Shared Commitment

The success of Hampton University is amplified by the power of shared commitment, as exemplified by the corporations and foundations that partner with us. Their visionary support goes beyond financial transactions; it represents a profound belief in our mission to shape future leaders and drive meaningful change in the world.

These partnerships are a testament to the transformative impact we can achieve together. We extend our deepest gratitude once more to these philanthropic leaders, whose contributions are listed below by giving tier.

We celebrate the impactful partnership between Toyota and Hampton University! Toyota representatives presented the James T. George School of Business with a $150,000 scholarship check. This funding directly supports our students, paving the way for future leaders in business and innovation.

STRATEGIC INVESTMENTS: Driving Hampton's Future

The combined strength of philanthropic giving and robust research grants significantly enhances Hampton University's capacity to deliver on its strategic priorities. This financial momentum fuels academic innovation, critical infrastructure improvements, and expanded stakeholder engagement. Our resources are deployed with precision and purpose to revitalize campus facilities, pioneer climate science, and provide accessible education. Every contribution is a vital investment in our collective future.

PART III

EXCELLENCE IN ACTION: Fundraising that Fuels the Mission

In 2024-2025, we continued cultivating a culture of giving among academic leaders and deans, integrating philanthropy as a key dimension of academic excellence. Collaborative planning between the Division of Advancement and academic units enhanced our ability to align donor interests with institutional priorities.

Meanwhile, community partnerships and athletic fundraising initiatives extended Hampton's reach and impact, reinforcing its role as an anchor institution within Coastal Virginia, contributing to an annual economic impact of $530 million.

At Hampton University, we are not simply building resources, we are building momentum. Together, we are laying the groundwork for a movement rooted in purpose, partnership, and possibility.

GOAL 1: Elevating Academic Excellence

Every facet of academic life at Hampton is touched by your generosity. Across schools and departments, gifts and grants are creating opportunity, fueling innovation, and producing the next generation of leaders and changemakers.

Celebrating a well-deserved victory! The Hampton University team shines after their impressive win at the HBCU Financial Literacy Bowl.

The James T. George School of Business continued its trajectory of growth and excellence, securing over $1 million in scholarships from partners such as MassMutual, Prudential, and Toyota. Corporate scholarships totaling $420,000 supported 90 students through fellowships with CIBC and Prudential, ensuring access to transformative educational experiences. The school's innovative Student Fellows programs and a first-place victory in the HBCU Financial Literacy Bowl highlights a learning model where business theory meets real-world impact. Alumni engagement remains strong, with advisory board members offering mentorship and ensuring every business student fulfills the School's 100% internship requirement.

Shaping the future of journalism. The Scripps Howard School of Journalism and Communications is committed to preparing the next generation of media professionals through experiential learning and strategic partnerships. The school awarded over $168,000 in scholarships to 32 students this year alone, fueling excellence in and out of the classroom.

The Scripps Howard School of Journalism and Communications is shaping the next generation of media professionals through experiential learning, research, and strategic partnerships. Over $168,000 in scholarships were awarded to 32 students, thanks to generous support from organizations such as the WR Hearst Foundation. Students gained national exposure through networking trips to New York City studios and reporting fellowships in South Korea, while alumni, who comprise 60% of the School's Advisory Council, serve as mentors and guest lecturers. The School's emphasis on innovation and civic engagement, including a digital absentee voters' guide project, highlights the power of media to advance democracy and social justice.

SUPPORT THAT TRANSFORMS STUDENT SUCCESS

Ruth E. Carter '82

- In the Department of Music and Performing Arts, a $30,000 grant funded student research, while alumni luminary Ruth E. Carter '82, a two-time Academy Award winner, returned to mentor students and host free access to her exhibitions.

Gregory Hines '23

- In the Department of English and Foreign Languages, alumnus Gregory Hines '23 transformative donation of a professional-grade film camera provided the Film Studies Program with tangible tools for storytelling.
- In the Department of Political Science and History, faculty secured over $325,000 in grants, including fellowships at Yale, and student placement rates for jobs and internships rose to 77%, reflecting exceptional faculty mentorship and alumni engagement.

The School of Liberal Arts and Education continues to prepare leaders in education, public service, and the arts through philanthropy and grant funding. A $1.2 million grant from Communio established the National Center for Black Family Life, positioning Hampton as a thought leader in strengthening families and communities. Seventeen faculty members secured over $3.7 million in research and outreach grants, while alumni such as four-star General Xavier Brunson '90 returned to inspire students at Founder's Day. This alignment of scholarship, service, and philanthropy demonstrates the School's commitment to preparing leaders who shape a better tomorrow.

Meanwhile, the department hosted a "State of Democracy in America" forum with two Virginia State Senators reflecting our commitment to innovative programs.

- The Department of Sociology hosted its inaugural career fair with 13 federal and local agencies, connecting students directly to internships and careers in public service and justice.

- The Department of Communicative Sciences and Disorders received $20,000 in scholarships and state-of-the-art equipment from GN ReSound, empowering students to pursue advanced clinical practice and doctoral studies.

These collective achievements reflect not only academic rigor but the deep and measurable impact of philanthropy in motion.

The expansion of Hampton U Online reflects the University's strategic investments in technology, faculty expertise, and innovative program design, positioning it among the nation's top and most affordable online education providers. Through a growing portfolio of flexible degree options, students can now pursue a streamlined one-year MBA, a Master of Science in Nursing, and several doctoral programs designed to meet the demands of today's global workforce. Hampton's distinguished faculty play a vital role in delivering a high-quality, personalized learning experience that upholds the University's tradition of academic excellence in a digital environment.

Alumni engagement continues to strengthen the program, as accomplished Hampton graduates mentor students, serve as guest lecturers, and exemplify the success that defines the Hampton brand. From business innovators to healthcare leaders, Hampton U Online alumni are advancing their fields and extending Hampton's legacy of excellence far beyond campus borders.

Rashida Jones '02 '24, a distinguished Hampton University alumna and former MSNBC president, celebrates her graduation with a Master of Business Administration from the Hampton U Online program.

The Fall 2024 launch of the School of Religion, the first of its kind at an HBCU to offer a Ph.D. in Public Theology and Community Engagement, marks a milestone that unites spiritual insight with scholarly excellence. The School's alignment with the historic Ministers Conference provides a powerful platform for national visibility and future fundraising, while alumni have already contributed $36,925 in direct gifts to advance its mission. During this year's conference, attendees were offered a sneak peek into plans for the Hampton University Religious Studies Center, envisioned as a sacred space for thought leadership and community development. The Center represents the next frontier in the University's academic and fundraising strategy.

Every endowed gift, scholarship, and partnership fuels Hampton's journey toward Research 1 research status and supports the strategic goal to Elevate Academic Excellence. Philanthropy at Hampton is more than a resource; it is a catalyst for transformation.

Powerful moments of worship and fellowship fill the air at the Ministers Conference.

GOAL 2: Increase Research and Innovation Funded Futures Advance Hampton's Research Enterprise

At Hampton University, research is more than discovery; it's destiny. Our mission to achieve Carnegie Research 1 status is driven by purpose and powered by philanthropy. Each grant, partnership, and investment brings us closer to transforming lives through innovation, scholarship, and impact. Together, we are building a research enterprise that not only answers the world's most pressing questions but also amplifies Hampton's role as a national leader in scientific excellence.

A Defining Moment: Achieving Research 2 Status

The 2024–2025 academic year marked a historic milestone: Hampton University achieved Research 2 classification by the Carnegie Commission on Higher Education, placing our institution among an elite group of only 13 HBCUs nationwide recognized for “high research activity.”

This distinction validates years of strategic investment and faculty achievement. It strengthens our ability to attract top-tier researchers, secure competitive grants, and offer transformative opportunities to students. With over $30 million in research funding secured this fiscal year alone, Hampton has proven that excellence in research and innovation is both achievable and sustainable.

Our faculty and students are advancing groundbreaking work in cancer treatment, climate science, cybersecurity, and artificial intelligence, publishing new findings and engaging in collaborative projects that elevate Hampton's visibility on the global stage. These achievements are the foundation of our readiness for the next great endeavor and our pursuit of Research 1 distinction by 2033.

School of Engineering, Architecture & Aviation: A Hub for Innovation

The School of Engineering, Architecture & Aviation (SEAA) is charting the future of technical education through strategic fundraising and hands-on research. With $5.3 million in grants from organizations such as the American Society for Engineering Education (ASEE), the School is equipping students with skills that meet the demands of an evolving industry.

Your giving provided scholarships for half of SEAA students, ensuring continued access and success. Through the Verizon STEM Summer Camp, 125 local middle school students explored robotics and 3D printing, inspiring the next generation of innovators. Alumni remain integral, serving on the Engineering Advisory Board and mentoring students through monthly engagements.

This powerful combination of research, outreach, and mentorship reinforces SEAA's role as an incubator for innovation and positions it strongly for the capital campaign.

From the classroom to the runway. Our partnership with Washington Dulles International Airport is creating a direct pipeline for student success, giving our students a first-hand look at airport operations and the future of the aviation industry.

Department of Chemistry and Biochemistry: Forging a Future in Science

In the Department of Chemistry and Biochemistry, science meets service. A generous $10,000 gift from alumnus Dr. Isai T. Urasa '70, established an annual seminar series that has already inspired 120 students through career-focused lectures from distinguished scientists, including alumna Dr. LaTonya Kilpatrick-Liverman '86.

Faculty secured funding from the NIH, NSF, and DOD to support cutting-edge research and training initiatives, demonstrating how fundraising and federal investment intersect to empower learning. Alumni remain deeply connected, returning each year to mentor and recruit new generations of scientists.

This synthesis of mentorship, innovation, and support propels the department and its graduates into leadership roles within the global scientific community.

Department of Computer Science: Engineering Our Digital Future

At the heart of Hampton's digital transformation is the Department of Computer Science, where strategic philanthropy ignites student success. This year, the department secured $141,000 in grants from Google and Lockheed Martin, and NSF CyberCorps scholarships fully funded 10 students pursuing cybersecurity careers.

A total of 219 students, including 16 research fellows, benefited from upgraded labs and mentoring from alumni working at Google, Leidos, and Deloitte. Pre-college initiatives, supported by NSF and Lockheed Martin, introduced 33 high school students to the power of coding and design thinking.

Through corporate partnerships and alumni engagement, the department is preparing students to lead in an increasingly digital world, and to sustain Hampton's innovation legacy.

Protecting our environment. Ranked among the top marine-focused programs at Historically Black Colleges and Universities, MES prepares students for careers in marine biology, oceanography, environmental law, and more.

Department of Marine and Environmental Science: A Rising Tide of Research

The Department of Marine and Environmental Science (MES) continues to lead in environmental conservation and research, securing new grants and partnerships to advance sustainability and climate awareness. All four MES faculty obtained federal grants and major gifts for scholarships, start-up funds, and specialized equipment, while the Brownies Outdoors Club received $1,200 from the National Park Trust to expand outdoor learning opportunities.

Students participated in scuba certification, field research, and professional conferences, while alumni facilitated internships at NASA and the Virginia Aquarium. With long-term partnerships with the Chesapeake Bay Foundation and the Virginia Aquarium, MES provides hands-on learning that connects science to service.

Department of Pharmaceutical Sciences: Navigating a Path to Discovery

The Department of Pharmaceutical Sciences continues to break new ground in biomedical research. With $1.2 million in new funding, including a $250,000 NIH grant for a mass spectrometer and an $850,000 NIH National Cancer Institute grant, the department is leading in cancer genomics and health equity research.

Students received advanced laboratory training and participated in an eight-week biomedical research program through partnerships with the University of Michigan and Fisk University. The new Pharmacy Mentorship Program unites alumni pharmacists with students to guide their academic and career trajectories.

Fundraising here excels innovation that saves lives, underscoring the power of giving to transform discovery into impact.

Equipped for discovery: A Hampton University pharmacy student works with an Agilent HPLC system, a key component used to prepare samples for analysis by a mass spectrometer.

Department of Physics: Cultivating a New Generation of Scientists

With more than $3.2 million in new grants, the Department of Physics is defining the next frontier in research and education. Funded by the DOE, DOD, and NSF, the department’s faculty and students are exploring Quantum Optics and Nuclear Fusion Plasma Physics, advancing both scientific knowledge and global collaboration.

This combination of faculty leadership, student training, and world-class research distinguishes Hampton as a national hub for breakthrough in physics and applied science.

The Hampton University Department of Physics explores the frontiers of light and communication in the Integrated Photonics and Optical Communication Lab.

Hampton University Proton Cancer Institute: Pioneering a New Standard in Cancer Care

The Hampton University Proton Cancer Institute (Hampton Proton), the only proton therapy center owned by an HBCU, continues to advance health equity through compassionate care, groundbreaking research, and community partnerships.

Philanthropy funded major upgrades to Pencil Beam Scanning (PBS) technology, while a $20,000 gift from Microsoft and the Sterling Legacy Foundation supported the Hampton Proton Internship Program. The PATH (Patient Access to Help) Registry now connects patients with housing, transportation, and wellness resources, and the annual Men's Health Fair provided critical cancer screenings to over 100 men, at no cost.

Through advocacy and action, Hampton Proton is redefining what community-centered research looks like in the fight against cancer.

Using state-of-the-art technology, the Hampton University Proton Cancer Institute's Pencil Beam Scanning machine delivers precise and targeted radiation therapy to cancer patients.

Student Pathfinder Profile: Antonio Suarez UNCOVERING TRUTH IN A DIGITAL AGE

For Antonio Suarez, Class of 2026, a Department of Sociology student researcher, a $92,719 Department of Homeland Security grant transformed curiosity into purpose. Working alongside Dr. Daren Fisher, Antonio contributed to national studies on election security and domestic terrorism, culminating in a presentation at the American Criminology Society Conference in Washington, D.C.

Antonio's story illustrates how research, mentorship, and philanthropy intersect to empower students to lead change in a complex world.

GOAL 3: Improve Operations & Enhance Infrastructure World-Class Systems, Modern Spaces and Unmatched Impact

To deliver the #1 student experience in America, Hampton University is investing in the future, modernizing its campus, upgrading systems, and building the infrastructure that sustains innovation. Philanthropy is the cornerstone of this progress. Through the generosity of alumni, foundations, and partners, we are improving the ways we work, learn, and connect, ensuring that every dollar, every data point, and every student experience reflects the excellence Hampton stands for.

Modernizing for a New Era: Technology and Systems

Every successful fundraising campaign is built on precision, transparency, and efficiency, and that begins with data. This year, Hampton University made significant strides toward building a world-class advancement infrastructure designed to strengthen relationships and streamline engagement.

Operational excellence and state-of-the-art infrastructure are the foundation of Hampton's next chapter. Our investments in technology, systems, and facilities ensure that the University is equipped to achieve its most ambitious goals.

We enriched 31,109 alumni profiles with new data and updated contact information for 4,391 graduates, while adding 1,477 new online and graduate students and 15,892 friends to our expanding network of supporters. Additionally, we compiled a database of 4,130 corporations, foundations, and religious organizations, building a comprehensive foundation for strategic philanthropic outreach.

These initiatives represent more than administrative progress, they are strategic investments in the systems that propels giving.

Technology Upgrades and Integration

To modernize our fundraising ecosystem, Hampton is implementing best-in-class technology platforms that will drive engagement and long-term growth:

- Raiser's Edge NXT (Blackbaud) CRM: On track for full implementation by December 2025, this powerful donor management system will enhance stewardship, reporting, and prospect tracking, ensuring every donor relationship is cultivated with care.
- Planned Giving Platforms: Through the adoption of FreeWill and Crescendo, we are transforming how we communicate estate and legacy giving opportunities, enabling supporters to create lasting impact.
- Crowdfunding & Annual Giving Tools: Partnerships with EAB and Gravyty are modernizing Hampton's digital fundraising operations, introducing new ways for donors to give online, engage socially, and amplify their impact.

These upgrades create a seamless, data-driven advancement operation that positions Hampton to scale its fundraising capacity and achieve future fundraising readiness.

Students from the Hampton University School of Nursing provide essential services and support to the community during the annual Senior Wellness Day.

School of Nursing: Cultivating Compassionate Caregivers

The School of Nursing, the oldest nursing school in the Commonwealth of Virginia, is where compassionate care meets cutting-edge technology. Strategic philanthropic investments have enhanced facilities and modernized programs to meet the evolving demands of today's healthcare landscape. A two-year, $14,000 grant from the Health Resources and Services Administration supported a new curriculum designed to address national shortages in HIV clinical care. This year, 76 students benefited from scholarships and hands-on learning experiences, including participation in Hampton's Senior Wellness Day. Innovation also continues to drive student success through the launch of a Virtual Reality Program and High-Tech Immersive Room, offering realistic simulations that strengthen clinical skills and improve NCLEX-RN® pass rates. Nursing alumni remain deeply engaged, mentoring students and contributing to professional development events that extend Hampton's legacy of excellence and community connection. Together, these investments are expanding Hampton's capacity to prepare world-class caregivers and positioning the University for future growth in health education and training.

Department of Counseling: A Partnership for Professional Growth

The Department of Counseling embodies Hampton's mission to serve humanity through education and empathy. This year, the department expanded its partnerships and infrastructure to better support students pursuing careers in mental health.

- Philanthropic Support: The New York Life Foundation provided grants for students experiencing financial hardship following the loss of a loved one.
- Student Impact: New partnerships with private providers and school systems increased internship and practicum opportunities.

- Innovative Programs: Faculty and students represented Hampton at the Virginia Counselor Association Conference, expanding professional networks.
- Alumni Engagement: Alumni such as Dr. Chelsea Washington '96, '14 delivered guest lectures, guiding doctoral students on self-care and resilience.

Through philanthropy and partnership, the department is creating sustainable systems that strengthen both Hampton's academic infrastructure and its community of care.

Office of Pre-Health Programs: Inspiring Tomorrow's Healers

The Office of Pre-Health Programs prepares students for medical and research careers through mentorship, resources, and scholarship support. This year, a $79,500 Sentara Choice Scholarship Grant provided tuition assistance to 14 pre-medical students, contributing to a 100% retention rate.

Students collectively completed 1,200 hours of community service, with many earning placements in prestigious medical programs at Boston University and Old Dominion University/Eastern Virginia Medical School.

This investment in access and preparation ensures Hampton continues to produce leaders who heal and serve, hallmarks of our Elevating Hampton Excellence strategic plan.

Student Pathfinder Profile: Mike J. Rahming INVESTING IN THE FUTURE

For Mike J. Rahming, Class of 2027, a junior Computer Science major from Atlanta, alumni support made the difference. A scholarship from the NHAA, Inc. Atlanta Chapter opened doors to leadership and learning. As captain of Hampton's winning team in the Goldman Sachs Market Madness: HBCU Possibilities Program, Mike helped secure a $250,000 grant for the University, demonstrating how philanthropy multiplies its impact when students rise to the challenge.

In a major win for both institutions, a joint team from Hampton University and Morgan State University secured fourth place at the Goldman Sachs Market Madness: HBCU Possibilities Program, earning a $250,000 grant to be split between the two schools.

Individual & Matching Gifts—Make an Impact

GOAL 4: Increase Financial Sustainability Securing Hampton's Future Through Vision, Leadership, and Philanthropy

A strong financial foundation ensures that Hampton University's legacy not only endures but thrives. Financial sustainability is more than balance sheets; it is the promise of access, innovation, and excellence for generations to come. Through disciplined planning, strategic investments, and a culture of giving, Hampton is building the fiscal infrastructure required to support our students, faculty, and mission well into the next century.

Philanthropy remains central to this mission. Every initiative, from endowment growth to corporate partnerships, advances our ability to attract investment,

Turning Connection into Impact

Hampton University's enduring fundraising success is rooted in a simple truth: giving begins with engagement. Our culture of philanthropy extends from the Board of Trustees and university leadership to faculty, staff, students, and alumni who see themselves as stewards of Hampton's future.

President Darrell K. Williams embodies a high-tech, high-touch philosophy of leadership, leveraging modern communication tools while maintaining the personal connections that define Hampton's spirit. As a proud Hampton alumnus, he brings authenticity and shared experience to every conversation, using his platform to unite generations of Hamptonians around a common purpose.

Whether through in-person gatherings or social media engagement, President Williams meets alumni where they are, listening, inspiring, and inviting their partnership in Hampton's continued rise. That connection is paying dividends: Hampton University now ranks among the top 20 institutions in the nation for the highest percentage of alumni who give back, a testament to the enduring loyalty and belief in our mission.

President Darrell K. Williams is a force for connection, meeting with alumni across the country and fostering the partnerships that have propelled Hampton University into the top 20 nationally for alumni giving. His dedication is a testament to the enduring loyalty and belief in the university's mission.

Cultivating a Culture of Giving

The University is embedding philanthropy into everyday operations. We hosted “Lunch and Learn” sessions in Chicago and on campus for business leaders, civic influencers, and community partners to explore collaborative opportunities. Signature gatherings such as the Blueteenth Experience in Atlanta, Coaches Caravan, and Pirate Weekenders in major cities reignited alumni pride and engagement. Faculty and staff now have access to new resources on proposal writing, donor cultivation, and relationship management—tools designed to build capacity and sustain growth.

This top-down, community-wide approach ensures that Hampton’s financial sustainability is not dependent on any single initiative but strengthened by a collective belief in the power of giving.

Bringing the Hampton spirit to life across the country, events like the Blueteenth Experience in Atlanta, the Coaches Caravan, and Pirate Weekenders have successfully reignited alumni pride and engagement. These events highlight the university’s strong and vibrant alumni network.

Diversifying the Funding Base

In today's evolving economic landscape, traditional funding sources face new pressures. Hampton University is responding with innovation, advocacy, and strategic diversification, creating a financial model built for resilience.

Beyond campus, Hampton continues to play a leading role in national advocacy for HBCUs. At the same time, the University is pursuing new partnerships with corporations, foundations, and private investors to broaden its revenue base. These collaborations, spanning technology, healthcare, finance, and education, are not only funding scholarships and research but also building the foundation that supports long-term goals.

“Financial sustainability at Hampton is not about surviving challenges; it is about strategically preparing for opportunity.”

– DR. MARC A. NEWMAN
Chief Advancement Officer, Hampton University

Advocacy in action! Bill Thomas, our Associate Vice President of Governmental Relations, is the university's chief lobbying presence. His work is essential to securing funding and legislative support, which enables Hampton University to provide research, teaching, and service.

The Department of Physical Therapy, home to the Commonwealth of Virginia's only accredited Doctor of Physical Therapy program located at an HBCU, continues to set the standard for excellence through strategic investment, student impact, and philanthropic support.

- Philanthropic Support: The department secured $80,000 in Title III funding for a new research initiative, while the Lilly Foundation awarded scholarships to six deserving students.
- Innovative Programs: The Department has launched a comprehensive licensure preparation strategy designed to increase NPTE licensure pass rates.
- Student Impact: Funding supported licensure preparation and prioritized underrepresented minority students, ensuring equity and access in graduate education.
- Alumni Engagement: All alumni are invited to a new series of DPT Town Hall Meetings which will kick off in Fall 2025, strengthening mentorship and clinical education opportunities
- Faculty Contributions: Department Chair Dr. Elizabeth Locke spearheaded the Title III initiative and piloted a research support program to expand faculty research productivity.
- This blend of leadership, innovation, alumni engagement, and student success reflects the Department's strong financial stewardship and readiness for the capital campaign.

Dr. Elizabeth Locke

Student Pathfinder Profile: Caira Fields

PAVING THE WAY IN PHYSICAL THERAPY

For Caira Fields, Class of 2027, a Doctor of Physical Therapy student and Graduate Student Executive Board Secretary, philanthropy means opportunity. A recipient of a Lilly Foundation scholarship, Caira has been able to focus fully on her academic and clinical training—balancing excellence in the classroom with leadership in service. Her work with the American Red Cross and her peers reflects Hampton’s commitment to developing leaders who serve with both skill and compassion.

Caira’s story embodies the heart of Hampton’s financial sustainability strategy: when we invest in students, we invest in the future.

Planned Giving—Secure Your Legacy

Financial sustainability is built one gift, one endowment, one legacy at a time. Through planned giving, donors can create a lasting impact that supports scholarships, programs, and innovation for generations of Hamptonians to come.

The Department of Sports Science & Wellness is developing the next generation of leaders in sports management, fitness, and wellness. Philanthropic partnerships, combined with a vibrant alumni network, create a strong foundation for long-term financial growth and impact.

- Philanthropic Support: A grant from the Little League World Series provided funding for four student internships, giving participants hands-on experience in event operations and management.
- Student Impact: Students logged hundreds of hours supporting events at the Boo Williams Sportsplex, gaining industry exposure and leadership experience.
- Innovative Programs: A Student-Athlete Mental Health Initiative, developed in partnership with local schools, promotes wellness and resilience.
- Alumni Engagement: Approximately 20 alumni, including NBA referee Matt Myers '06, Eric Ford '08 (VP, Johnson & Johnson), and Ese Ighedosa '09 (Senior Counsel, Apple TV), returned to campus to teach, mentor, and inspire.

This dynamic integration of alumni engagement, professional partnerships, and student opportunity enhances the department’s visibility and demonstrates Hampton’s readiness to sustain growth through strategic philanthropy.

GOAL 5: Enhance Stakeholder Engagement Building Bridges. Strengthening Bonds. Expanding Hampton's Global Impact.

At Hampton University, engagement is more than connection; it's collaboration. Our strength lies in the collective energy of alumni, students, faculty, staff, and partners who believe in Hampton's mission and power its future. As we prepare for the capital campaign, we are cultivating a vibrant network that advances our shared vision: to build a globally connected community of excellence, innovation, and service.

From mentorship to philanthropy, from campus partnerships to global performances, Hampton's stakeholder engagement is the heartbeat of our transformation. Each relationship, rooted in trust, tradition, and a shared sense of purpose, amplifies our mission and ensures that the Hampton legacy continues to thrive for generations to come.

Alumni Mentorship & Engagement: A Force for Student Success

Hampton's alumni are more than graduates; they are mentors, advocates, and champions of the next generation. Their engagement transforms the student experience, providing guidance, professional pathways, and inspiration that extends far beyond the classroom.

- Music and Performing Arts: Two-time Academy Award winner Ruth E. Carter '82 mentors students, offering them rare access to the creative industry.
- School of Religion: Alumni demonstrated their loyalty through three direct gifts, helping to strengthen the School's foundation.
- Department of Sociology: Alumni serving in the FBI organized the HBCU Campus Tour, connecting students to careers in federal service.
- Department of Biological Science: Practicing physicians and health professionals mentor students, resulting in high acceptance rates into medical and professional programs.

This dynamic engagement demonstrates how our alumni are not only giving back; they are paying it forward, empowering students to become leaders in every field.

Empowering the next generation! Hampton alumna and Oscar winner Ruth E. Carter '82 shares invaluable industry expertise with students during a masterclass, proving that Hampton graduates are more than just donors—they are mentors, advocates, and champions.

Hampton University Choir: A Harmonious Legacy

The Hampton University Choir continues its rich tradition of excellence with an upcoming London tour that celebrates history and elevates Hampton's global visibility.

- Philanthropic Support: The Music Department raised funds to make the Summer 2025 London tour a reality.
- Student Impact: Students will perform at the UK Black Business Entrepreneurs Conference and the London Design Biennale at Somerset House, retracing the 1930 European tour of composer R. Nathaniel Dett.

- Faculty Contributions: Under Director Omar Dickenson, the choir continues to perform masterworks that preserve Hampton's legacy.
- Innovative Programs: The choir opened Black History Month with a performance at the Governor's Mansion in Richmond, extending Hampton's reach through cultural diplomacy.

This global performance underscores how artistic excellence amplifies Hampton's mission and strengthens its readiness for the future.

Department of Aviation: Soaring to New Heights

The Department of Aviation continues to prepare students for global careers in the rapidly evolving aerospace industry through dedicated partnerships and alumni collaboration.

- Philanthropic Support: The department received an annual $25,000 gift from Boeing Global Engagement supporting five students, and two $2,000 scholarships from the Laura Taber Barbour Air Safety Foundation.
- Student Impact: 27 students benefited from philanthropic support, including those funded by PSA Airlines ($5,000) and JetBlue for participation in the Organization of Black Aerospace Professionals (OBAP) conference.

- Innovative Programs: Students gained industry exposure at the inaugural HBCU Day at the United Airlines Flight Training Center in Denver, CO.
- Alumni Engagement: Five alumni serve on the Aviation Advisory Board, mentoring students and strengthening Hampton's ties to major airlines.

This synergy between industry and alumni illustrates how Hampton's engagement extends skyward, preparing students for success while building a foundation for campaign growth.

More U.S. Army Cadet Command Hall of Fame honorees than any other ROTC nationwide.

Hampton University ROTC: Forging Leaders of Character

Hampton's Army and Navy ROTC programs are models of leadership and service, preparing future officers through mentorship and partnership.

- Philanthropic Support: Hampton University Rocks Inc. awarded its first scholarship to Cadet Lynnette Smith '25.
- Student Impact: 39 cadets participated in the Professional Development Panel Discussion featuring Army and Navy leaders.
- Alumni Engagement: Hampton inducted more U.S. Army Cadet Command Hall of Fame honorees than any other ROTC institution nationwide.
- Community Impact: The Navy ROTC consortium, spanning Old Dominion, Norfolk State, and Regent University, offers shared training and leadership opportunities.

These programs exemplify Hampton's commitment to service, mentorship, and excellence in leadership development.

Department of Atmospheric and Planetary Sciences: Building a Network for Future Scientists

The Department of Atmospheric and Planetary Sciences (APS) exemplifies how strong alumni and faculty partnerships create pathways for discovery and engagement.

- Student Impact: Graduate students participated in research symposia, judged local science fairs, and mentored K-12 students during STEM Nights.
- Faculty Contributions: Faculty secured collaborative grants across departments and expanded student research opportunities.
- Innovative Programs: Partnerships allowed students to attend national conferences such as the Annual Medical Education Conference (AMEC) and the National Medical Association Conference.
- Alumni Engagement: APS alumni remain deeply involved, helping students secure internships and positions at NASA and leading research institutions.

Through collaboration and mentorship, APS continues to expand Hampton's footprint in the sciences and demonstrates readiness for philanthropic investment.

Launching future scientists! Students from the Department of Atmospheric and Planetary Sciences prepare a weather balloon for launch. This hands-on research experience provides practical job training and prepares students for successful careers with agencies like NASA and NOAA.

Osher Lifelong Learning Institute (OLLI): Enriching Lives Through Lifelong Learning

The Osher Lifelong Learning Institute (OLLI) at Hampton University, the only HBCU-hosted OLLI in the nation, embodies Hampton’s belief that education has no age limit.

- Philanthropic Support: A foundation grant supports curriculum development and community programming.
- Innovative Programs: OLLI launched the King’s Roundtable Discussion, a new interest group designed to increase male participation.
- Student Impact: Membership has grown from 35 to over 650 learners, offering intellectual enrichment and cultural engagement for adults 50 and older.

This model of lifelong learning enhances Hampton’s reach and strengthens its reputation as a hub for intellectual and cultural growth.

In an effort to increase male participation, the OLLI program launched the King’s Roundtable Discussion, an innovative interest group designed to foster engagement and community.

Student Pathfinder Profile: Jacqueline Eadie A LEGACY OF SERVICE

For Jacqueline Eadie ‘24, service is a calling. From her work as a Care Assistant and Nurse Aide apprentice to her internship with the Hampton Victim Services Unit, Jacqueline exemplifies the Hampton spirit—using education to uplift others. Through philanthropic support and community partnerships, she gained the hands-on experience needed to lead in healthcare and public service. Her journey embodies the power of engagement to transform lives.

Department of Biological Science: Cultivating Future Health Professionals

The Department of Biological Science prepares students to excel in medicine and research by combining academic rigor with real-world experience.

- Philanthropic Support: Consistent budgetary and alumni support sustain program operations and scholarships.
- Innovative Programs: The program integrates research and clinical training, offering summer experiences at Sentara and Children’s Hospital of The King’s Daughters (CHKD).
- Student Impact: The Master of Medical Science (MSD) program achieved a 100% graduation rate for the May 2024 class, with six graduates accepted into professional schools.
- Alumni Engagement: The Hampton Alumni Health Professionals Homecoming Visit brought together over a dozen alumni from Harvard, Emory, and Vanderbilt, providing mentorship and networking.

This consistent engagement between alumni and students positions the department—and Hampton University—as a leader in health sciences education.

GOAL 6: Sustain Athletic Excellence Champions on the Field. Scholars in the Classroom. Leaders for Life.

At Hampton University, athletics is more than competition; it's character in motion. From the training field to the classroom, our student-athletes embody the determination, discipline, and excellence that define the Hampton spirit. Sustaining athletic excellence is central to our mission to deliver the #1 student experience in America, uniting Pirates past and present through pride, purpose, and performance.

Our athletic programs reflect the full Hampton experience, academic rigor, leadership development, and community engagement. Through philanthropy, partnerships, and alumni support, we are ensuring that our student-athletes have the resources, mentorship, and opportunities they need to excel in every arena.

Making history! The 2025 CAA Women's Indoor Track and Field Champions – our Hampton University Pirates!

A Year of Champions and Scholars

The 2024–2025 academic year was a defining season for Hampton Athletics, marked by milestones that reflect our unwavering commitment to both academic and athletic excellence. A record 230 student-athletes earned Dean's List honors, while five programs, men's and women's cross country, men's and women's tennis, and women's basketball, achieved an impressive 100% graduation rate, underscoring Hampton's holistic approach to student success. On the field, the Women's Track and Field Team captured Hampton's first-ever Coastal Athletic Association (CAA) championship, signaling a new era of Division I dominance.

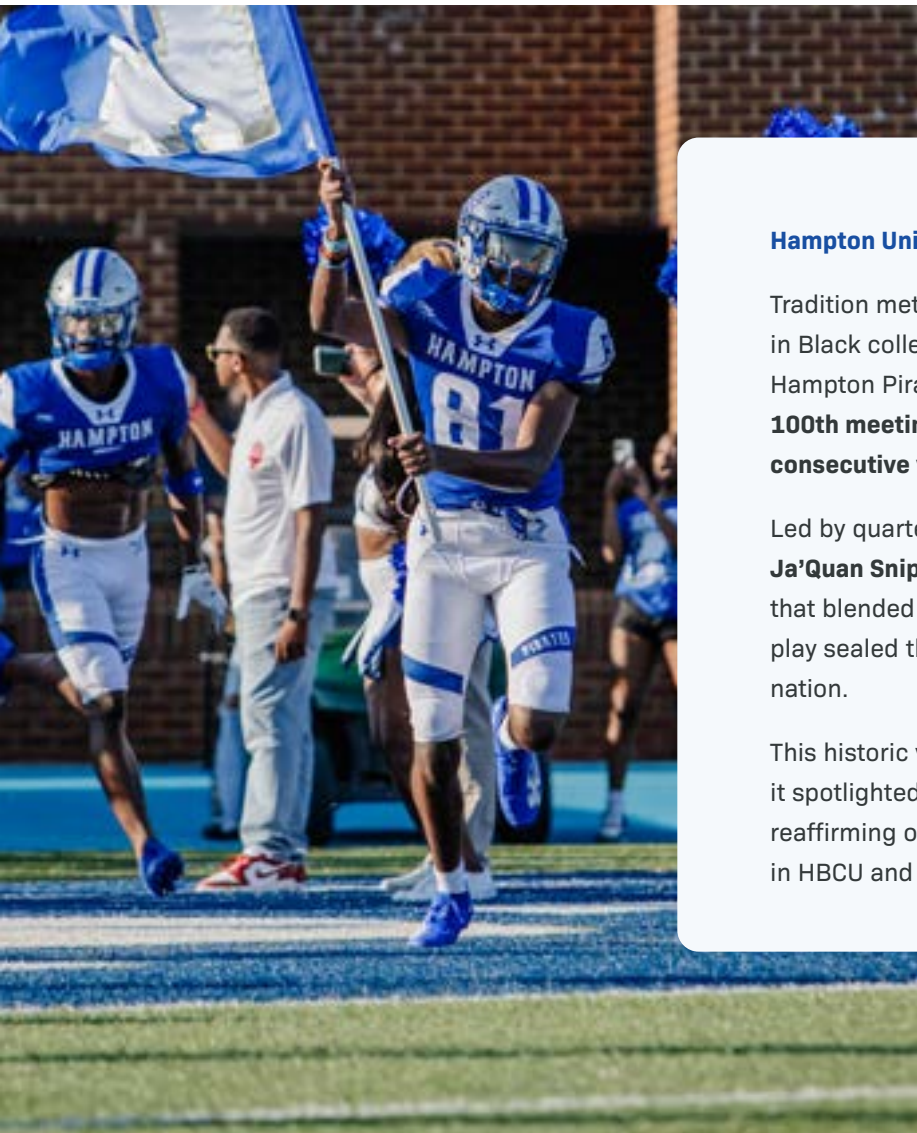

Leadership and legacy also took center stage as Director of Athletics Anthony D. Henderson Sr. '00, a proud Hampton alumnus, became the first athletics director featured on “Coaches Corner” by the Greater Hampton Roads Better Business Bureau for his excellence in sports administration and community partnership. The Hall of Fame Class of 2025 celebrated a new generation of Pirate legends, including a Team of Distinction and a Lifetime Achievement Award honoree, honoring Hampton’s rich athletic heritage.

Expanding career pathways, a new partnership with the Little League World Series offered four students professional internships, demonstrating the power of athletics to prepare leaders beyond the game. Together, these milestones showcase the strength of Hampton’s champions and scholars—and the enduring standard of excellence that continues to define our Home by the Sea.

Each milestone is a testament to our enduring standard of excellence—on the field, in the classroom, and in the community—and reflects the leadership and talent driving our athletic future.

In a new partnership expanding career pathways, four Hampton University students secured internships with the Little League World Series. Pictured here, three of the four students are with Little League officials, demonstrating the power of athletics to prepare leaders beyond the game.

Hampton University Football: The Battle of the Real HU

Tradition met triumph in one of the most celebrated rivalries in Black college football. On September 21, 2024, the Hampton Pirates defeated Howard University 27–20 in the 100th meeting of the storied series, marking their eighth consecutive victory in the Battle of the Real HU.

Led by quarterback Chris Zellous '25 and running back Ja’Quan Snipes '28, the Pirates delivered a performance that blended skill, strategy, and heart. A decisive defensive play sealed the win, electrifying fans and alumni across the nation.

This historic victory not only fueled university pride, it spotlighted Hampton Athletics on a national stage, reaffirming our place among the premier athletic programs in HBCU and Division I sports.

Hampton Athletics Foundation: Powering Our Pirates to Excellence

Sustaining excellence requires vision and investment. The Hampton Athletics Foundation (HAF) is the dedicated philanthropic arm supporting our 17 varsity programs and more than 360 student-athletes.

- Philanthropic Support: The Foundation provides a structured giving model, offering investor levels from $150 annually to the President's Club at $10,000 annually, ensuring that every supporter can contribute to the Pirates' success.
- Student Impact: Unrestricted gifts fund scholarships, facility upgrades, equipment, and nutrition programs that directly support both men's and women's teams.
- Alumni Engagement: Alumni such as Derek Lewis '88, an inaugural member of the Pirate Leadership Society, exemplify the spirit of giving that sustains our athletic legacy.

The Foundation is not simply a fundraising vehicle, it is a community of champions united in purpose. Through collective investment, HAF is building the infrastructure that keeps Hampton competitive and campaign-ready for the future.

Faculty Pacesetter Profile: Maurice Pierce A CHAMPION'S LEGACY

For Coach Maurice Pierce, excellence is a tradition built over decades. As Director of Track and Field and Cross Country, his 26-year tenure has produced both champions and scholars. Named CAA Women's Coach of the Year, Coach Pierce led the women's team to their first-ever conference championship, adding to a legacy that includes multiple NCAA appearances and international recognition.

This year, Coach Pierce was appointed Head Coach of the USA Men's Track & Field Team for the 2025 Indoor World Athletics Championships in China, a distinction that brings global attention to Hampton University. His leadership exemplifies how Hampton's coaches are not only shaping athletes but also advancing the university's brand on the world stage.

Student Pathfinder Profile: The Women’s Indoor Track and Field Team

CHAMPIONS FOR EXCELLENCE

The Hampton University Women’s Indoor Track and Field Team embodies the power of perseverance, teamwork, and excellence. Their historic 2025 CAA Indoor Track and Field Championship victory, the first since Hampton joined the conference in 2022, represents more than athletic dominance; it symbolizes the university’s commitment to holistic success.

Highlights and Achievements:

- Historic Championship: Captured Hampton’s first-ever CAA women’s track and field title.

- Student-Athlete Grit: The win was sealed in the final event—the 4x400 relay—where anchor Brianna Charles delivered a clutch performance to secure the championship.

- Record-Breaking Performance: Peninah Mutisya set a new meet record in the 3,000 meters.
- Teamwork in Action: The 4x400 and 4x800 relay teams delivered key points in a balanced team effort.

Their victory is a powerful reflection of Hampton’s mission: to develop scholars, athletes, and leaders whose drive extends beyond the finish line.

Homecoming: The Ultimate Reunion

Homecoming is our largest annual reunion, marketing, and fundraising event, bringing over 20,000 students, alumni, and guests together to celebrate our legacy. Our 2024 Homecoming, "Pirates Island," was a signature multi-day experience that created a vibrant, intergenerational connection. This massive convergence boosts the local economy and affirms the university's role as a major cultural hub.

Reunion Weekend: A Timeless Tradition

Hampton University's Reunion Weekend is a lively annual event where hundreds of alumni return to celebrate graduation milestones and reconnect. The weekend's festivities are a vibrant blend of nostalgia and celebration. This year, alumni from milestone years (10, 15, 20, etc.), including the 50-year Emeritus class, came together to reminisce and revel in their #HamptonPride.

Class Legacy and Giving Totals: Upholding a Timeless Tradition

Hampton University's class names, a tradition since 1969, are a source of pride and identity that fuel our annual class giving totals. From Ogre Phi Ogre to Radiance, Dynasty, Quintessence, and Onyx, these names are a unique way for each class to distinguish themselves. This tradition directly contributes to the incredible generosity seen in the class giving totals listed below, which are broken down by individual gifts (IG), matching gifts (MG), and overall total.

Celebrating an incredible milestone for our "home by the sea."
At Reunion Weekend, the Emeritus Class presented Hampton University with a historic gift of $2,451,220.38. This monumental contribution, presented by our alumni, is a testament to the power of giving back and provides a powerful financial foundation for our future.

LOOKING FORWARD

Hampton University is poised for a new chapter of transformation, one defined by innovation, resilience, and purpose. The progress of this past year has strengthened our foundation and affirmed what is possible when vision meets action.

As we look ahead, our focus turns to expanding our impact, deepening partnerships, and empowering the next generation of scholars and leaders who will shape the world around them.

We extend our sincere gratitude to every donor and partner whose belief in Hampton makes this journey possible.

Your support continues to move us boldly toward the future.
